GOVERNMENT OF INDIA
DEFENCE
LOK SABHA

UNSTARRED QUESTION NO:3580
ANSWERED ON:18.08.2005
APPOINTMENT ON COMPASSIONATE GROUNDS
Pingle Shri Devidas Anandrao

Will the Minister of DEFENCE be pleased to state:

(a) the number of civilian employees passed away in Deolali Cantonment Board during the last three years;

(b) whether employment on compassionate grounds has been given to the next of kin of the deceased families;

(c) if not, the reasons therefor;

(d) the number of cases for appointment on compassionate ground pending; and

(e) the time by which dependents of the deceased employees are likely to be appointed on compassionate grounds?

Answer

MINISTER OF DEFENCE (SHRI PRANAB MUKHERJEE)

(a) Five.

(b) & (c): Yes, Sir. Employment has been given to the next of kin of two deceased employees on compassionate grounds. In one case, the next of kin of the deceased employee has not applied. In two cases, complete documents have not been received.

(d) No case of appointment on compassionate grounds is pending in Deolali Cantonment Board.

(e) Does not arise.